

2016 Annual Federal Tax Refresher Course and Comprehension Test

Course Description: The Annual Federal Tax Refresher (AFTR) course reviews important tax concepts and ethical requirements for the 2016 filing season. Successful completion the 2016 Annual Federal Tax Refresher (AFTR) Course and Comprehension Test counts toward the voluntary annual requirement for obtaining an IRS Annual Filing Season Program (AFSP) Record of Completion for the 2016 filing season.

Upon completion of this self-study course, you will be able to:

- Identify new tax law and recent updates of tax law
- Recall the basic concepts of preparing Form 1040
- Recognize the ethical requirements for preparers and identify penalties for violation of those requirements

Course Fee: $49 for Drake Software customers; $59 for non-Drake Software customers

How to Register: Log in to www.DrakeETC.com and select AFTR from the menu on the left side of the webpage. This page lists details for the course, along with purchase information.

CPE Facts: Credits earned for successful completion of the AFTR Course and Comprehension Test, apply toward the “Non-exempt” preparer requirement for obtaining an Annual Filing Season Program (AFSP) Record of Completion for the 2016 filing season. Students must complete the course before the expiration date to receive CE credit.

“Exempt” preparers may take the AFTR course and earn 6 hours of continuing education credit, with the exception of Enrolled Agents, who cannot receive CE credit for taking an AFTR course. Exempt preparers earn 3 hours toward the federal tax update CE requirement, and the excess 3 hours earned applies toward the federal tax law CE requirement.

For details, including who is considered “nonexempt” or “exempt”, visit the ASFP Information Page.
